

Global Voices in Nursing: Internationally Educated Nurses

Thursday, March 27, 2025 12-1pm via Zoom

REGISTER TODAY at: https://uwo.eu.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV\_eFF4qAcfx3idCKy

The Decolonization, Anti-Racism, Anti-Oppression (DARAO) Committee of Western University at the Arthur Labatt Family School of Nursing is proudly hosting a speaker series on the topic of internationally educated nurses. Join DARAO for an enlightening discussion with our panel of three distinguished speakers:

Dr. Ruth Lee, RN, MScN, PhD

"Barriers and Facilitators to Educating and Integrating Internationally Educated Nurses Into the Canadian Healthcare System"

Dr. Edward Cruz, RN, PhD, CCNE, FCAN

"Filipino Nurses' Employment Experiences in Ontario"

Therecia Brooks, RN, MScN, BScN

"Fostering Diversity and Supporting the Integration of Internationally Educated Nurses into Canada's Healthcare System"

This speaker series aims to foster meaningful dialogue on the experiences of internationally educated nurses, raising awareness and inspiring actionable change on the challenges, opportunities, and pathways for their integration into the Canadian healthcare system. We look forward to engaging with you!
