

Graduate Program in Hispanic Studies
PhD Pre-Proposal & Supervisory Agreement

Section 1: Brief proposal

This section will form the basis for the assignment of the PhD supervisor/s and the advising committee (second reader). It should be completed after discussion with the Graduate Chair and the prospective supervisor.

Your completed form must be handed in to the Graduate Chair and prospective supervisor by the week 2 of the second term.

1. Your name:

2. Working title:

3. Identify in order of importance three central objectives that you want to pursue in this research:

i) ii)

iii)

4. Brief description of topic area:

(This section should be used to identify the core of your enquiry, to summarize the overall scope of your topic and to provide some information on the methods/ approach/ theory which you will be adopting) +/- 250-300 words

5. Initial resource implications (Please format according to your field – ed. MLA/ APA. Please use space as needed):

a) primary sources (data, books, film, artworks, etc.)

b) secondary sources (reading list – scholarly articles, monographs, etc.)