3. Course Content and Aims

Welcome to Japanese 1036, the Japanese for Beginners!

Upon learning a new language, it is important for the students to know it requires their diligence and commitment on a DAILY basis. Please note that this course is designed for students with no/little previous knowledge of Japanese. Therefore, if you have already taken any prior Japanese courses, please consult the course instructor.

The aims of this course are:

- to build the acquisition of basic Japanese-language ability by developing the grammatical accuracy, comprehension and communicative ability in the four basic language skills (listening, speaking, reading, and writing) in Japanese
- to encourage awareness and enhance general knowledge of Japanese culture raised both in and outside the context of language learning

4. Learning Outcomes

Upon successful completion of the course, students demonstrate acquisitions and skills in the following areas:

- exchange simple conversations in real-life situations (expressing their background, schedule, preferences, appearance, personality, hearsay, etc.) using basic grammar patterns
- convey simple questions, invitations, offers, requests and the responses respectively
- comprehend authentic texts (a personal diary, postcards and letters, questionnaires, advertisements, and uncomplicated instructions, etc.)
- write a diary, a short essay about themselves, a postcard/letter, and a short story from the provided topics with appropriate usage of the syllabic hiragana, katakana, and kanji

- appropriate usage of the basic casual and polite forms, use of particles, conjugation rules of nouns, verbs and adjectives in the tense (present/past) and the aspect (affirmative/negative).
- carry out communication with cultural appropriateness by taking into account factors such as the proper time, place and occasions

5. Textbook and Workbook

Tokyo, Japan: The Japan Times.

* The textbook and the workbook are available from the UWO bookstore - UCC Lower Level

6. OWL

As part of the course, you will have access to OWL. This system enables you to access the class handouts, assignment information, workbook answer keys, and other activities. It is your responsibility to print out and bring the lesson handouts to each class.

Please note that you need to have your valid UWO e-mail account to access OWL.

How to log onto OWL

- 1) Go to <https://owl.uwo.ca/portal>
- 2) Enter your user name and password
- 3) Once logged on, open “JAPANESE 1036 001 FW17”

* To access the lesson handouts, click “Lessons” on the left bar, choose the chapter, and click “Grammar Materials or ぶんぽう”.

Adobe Reader & Japanese Fonts

In order to view the files on OWL properly, it is necessary to have Adobe Reader on your computer. Also, installing Japanese Language software on your computer is strongly recommended.

7. Course Grades

Participation -----	10%
Assignments (review sheets and compositions) -----	12%
Cultural Activities at instructor’s discretion -----	2%
Mini Quizzes -----	8%
2 Oral Interviews (Fall 5% Winter 8%) -----	13%
5 Chapter Tests -----	25%
Final Exam (Lesson 1 to 9) -----	30%

8. Student Responsibility

Attendance and Participation

- a) Active participation in classroom activities, answering instructor's questions, volunteering to present in class, and self-corrections are strongly encouraged and will be considered as part of the final grade.
- b) Lateness will be reflected in your final participation mark. If you arrive after the attendance is taken, you will be marked late. Every three lates will be counted as one absence.
- c) If you must leave the class early for a legitimate reason (e.g., doctor's appointment), please notify the instructor before the class starts.

d) Absenteeism

Students seeking academic accommodation on medical grounds for any missed tests, exams, participation components, and/or missed assignments must apply to the Academic Counselling Office of their home Faculty and provide documentation. Academic accommodation cannot be granted by the instructor or department. For the UWO Policy on Accommodation for Medical Illness and to download the Student Medical Certificate (SMC):

<https://studentservices.uwo.ca/secure/index.cfm> (under the Medical Documentation heading)

- e) Attendance is crucial for language courses. As stated in the link below, <http://www.uwo.ca/modlang/undergraduate/policies.html> If you are deemed to be absent too frequently, which usually means more than three unexcused absences per term, you will receive an email citing this policy http://www.uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/academic\_policies/exam/attendance.pdf and warning you, that if there is no change in behavior, you will not be allowed to take the final examination. Also, please note that if you miss 5 classes per term, you will lose all of the 5% of your attendance/participation mark for a possible total of a 10% reduction in your final mark for the academic year.
- f) The use of any electronic devices, such as laptops, cell phones, smart phones, and tablets is NOT PERMITTED in class.

Assignments

- a) You should check OWL after EVERY CLASS for the assignment information. Assignments are to be handed in at the beginning of the class and must be submitted on time.
- b) You are expected to listen to the MP3 audio material which is bundled with the textbook on a daily basis. It is important for you to be familiar with the new dialogue and the vocabulary as well as the new grammatical patterns in advance of each lesson. Also, you are required to complete the workbook listening exercises after the completion of each chapter. The listening component can be found in the MP3 audio material.
- c) You will be evaluated based on all the daily/weekly assignments from the workbook and the textbook. Also, there are composition assignments for each chapter and one final composition, which you will write using the Japanese composition forms. Any late assignments will not be accepted without legitimate reasons.

Quiz/Test/Oral Interview

- a) There will be vocabulary, grammar and kanji (Chinese character) mini quizzes every chapter and 5 Chapter Tests. Also, you will prepare for 2 oral interviews based on the provided topic. The detailed instructions will be provided in advance.
- b) There will be no make-up quizzes, tests or oral presentations in this course. If you missed the above due to a legitimate reason, submit an official document, and the instructor will accommodate accordingly by re-weighting the course requirements.

9. Academic Accommodation, Academic Offences and Support Services

The Department of Modern Languages and Literatures Policies which govern the conduct, standards, and expectations for student participation in Modern Languages and Literatures courses is available in the Undergraduate section of the Department of Modern Languages and Literatures website at <http://www.uwo.ca/modlang/undergraduate/policies.html>. It is your responsibility to understand the policies set out by the Senate and the Department of Modern Languages and Literatures, and thus ignorance of these policies cannot be used as grounds of appeal.

Prerequisite: None.

Antirequisite: Japanese 1050, 1051A/B, 1052A/B. Note that students who have successfully completed Grade 12 U Japanese or equivalent cannot take this course for credit.

Please Note: Students are responsible for ensuring that their selection of courses is appropriate and accurately recorded, that all course prerequisites have been successfully completed, and that they are aware of any antirequisite course(s) that they have taken. If the student does not have the requisites for a course, and does not have written special permission from his or her Dean to enroll in the course, the University reserves the right to cancel the student's registration in the course. This decision may not be appealed. The normal financial and academic penalties will apply to a student who is dropped from a course for failing to have the necessary prerequisites.

- a) Active participation in classroom activities, answering instructor's questions, volunteering to present in class, and self-corrections are strongly encouraged and will be considered as part of the final grade.
- b) Lateness will be reflected in your final participation mark. If you arrive after the attendance is taken, you will be marked late. Every three lates will be counted as one absence.
- c) If you must leave the class early for a legitimate reason (e.g., doctor's appointment), please notify the instructor before the class starts.

d) Absenteeism

Students seeking academic accommodation on medical grounds for any missed tests, exams, participation components, and/or missed assignments must apply to the Academic Counselling Office of their home Faculty and provide documentation. Academic accommodation cannot be granted by the instructor or department. For the UWO Policy on Accommodation for Medical Illness and to download the Student Medical Certificate (SMC):

<https://studentservices.uwo.ca/secure/index.cfm> (under the Medical Documentation heading)

- e) Attendance is crucial for language courses. As stated in the link below, <http://www.uwo.ca/modlang/undergraduate/policies.html> If you are deemed to be absent too frequently, which usually means more than three unexcused absences per term, you will receive an email citing this policy http://www.uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/academic\_policies/exam/attendance.pdf and warning you, that if there is no change in behavior, you will not be allowed to take the final examination. Also, please note that if you miss 5 classes per term, you will lose all of the 5% of your attendance/participation mark for a possible total of a 10% reduction in your final mark for the academic year.
- f) The use of any electronic devices, such as laptops, cell phones, smart phones, and tablets is NOT PERMITTED in class.

Assignments

- a) You should check OWL after EVERY CLASS for the assignment information. Assignments are to be handed in at the beginning of the class and must be submitted on time.
- b) You are expected to listen to the MP3 audio material which is bundled with the textbook on a daily basis. It is important for you to be familiar with the new dialogue and the vocabulary as well as the new grammatical patterns in advance of each lesson. Also, you are required to complete the workbook listening exercises after the completion of each chapter. The listening component can be found in the MP3 audio material.
- c) You will be evaluated based on all the daily/weekly assignments from the workbook and the textbook. Also, there are composition assignments for each chapter and one final composition, which you will write using the Japanese composition forms. Any late assignments will not be accepted without legitimate reasons.

Quiz/Test/Oral Interview

- a) There will be vocabulary, grammar and kanji (Chinese character) mini quizzes every chapter and 5 Chapter Tests. Also, you will prepare for 2 oral interviews based on the provided topic. The detailed instructions will be provided in advance.
- b) There will be no make-up quizzes, tests or oral presentations in this course. If you missed the above due to a legitimate reason, submit an official document, and the instructor will accommodate accordingly by re-weighting the course requirements.

9. Academic Accommodation, Academic Offences and Support Services

The Department of Modern Languages and Literatures Policies which govern the conduct, standards, and expectations for student participation in Modern Languages and Literatures courses is available in the Undergraduate section of the Department of Modern Languages and Literatures website at <http://www.uwo.ca/modlang/undergraduate/policies.html>. It is your responsibility to understand the policies set out by the Senate and the Department of Modern Languages and Literatures, and thus ignorance of these policies cannot be used as grounds of appeal.

Prerequisite: None.

Antirequisite: Japanese 1050, 1051A/B, 1052A/B. Note that students who have successfully completed Grade 12 U Japanese or equivalent cannot take this course for credit.

Please Note: Students are responsible for ensuring that their selection of courses is appropriate and accurately recorded, that all course prerequisites have been successfully completed, and that they are aware of any antirequisite course(s) that they have taken. If the student does not have the requisites for a course, and does not have written special permission from his or her Dean to enroll in the course, the University reserves the right to cancel the student's registration in the course. This decision may not be appealed. The normal financial and academic penalties will apply to a student who is dropped from a course for failing to have the necessary prerequisites.
