

Department of Visual Arts

October 16, 2009

depARTment NEWS

PRODUCTION STILL MFA/PhD Student Exhibition in the ArtLab... until October 22nd.

Paul Walde, Artistic Director of the 2009 LOLA Fest, will present a talk on Thursday, October 22 at 11:30 am on Michael Snow's film Condensation. A Cove Story, currently on view at the McIntosh Gallery. Using images and video clips of other Snow works, he will contextualize the new film within both the artist's greater body of work and within LOLA 2009.

Sarah Bassnett presented a paper, "Photographic Fantasies of a Modern City," at an international, interdisciplinary conference, Feeling Photography, held October 16 - 17th at the University of Toronto and sponsored by the Centre for the Study of the United States and the Toronto Photography Seminar.

Reminder:

Instructors... at approximately half way through the course (mid-October for 1st-term courses) you are required to provide to your students a grade that will count toward their final mark for the course.

Upcoming Events

October 29 - Stephen Andrews, painter, 8 pm, Art Now! VAC 100

November 6 - Graduate Thesis Research Award deadline.